BHARATPUR

In this issue, we take you to Bharatpur, an important town of Rajasthan, India.

Once an impregnable, fortified city—today more famous for the nearby Keoladeo Ghana Bird sanctuary. Where whirring of wings and birdsong as they draw nearer. Squawking, beaking, soaring. The Indian sarus and Siberian crane. The croucha pakshi of Hindu Mythology. All in a sky loud with the beat of feathers. Against a sunset of the most incredibly soft brilliance, sparking fire into the vast, stagnant swamp. This was once the shooting preserve of royalty and their's is a presence still tangible in the ornamental palace of Bharatpur. But, it is the birds who own Bharatpur now. For men, it is one of those rare places where even their soul takes wing. Fort, palace and Museum are worth visiting spots.

Excursions— Once the haunting preserve of the princely family of Bharatpur, the extensive low lying marsh which makes up the Keoladeo Ghana Sanctuary covers 52 Sq. k m. in area. Thorny babul trees, their tops clear of the water, hold the nests of the thousands of birds which gather here. Varieties include the painted stork, egret, pelican, ibis, cormorant, darter, grey and white heron, cranes, purple moorhen. There are exotic migrants from Afghanistan, Central Asia, Tibet as well as greylag geese from Siberia, Siberian cranes from the Arctic, barheaded geese from China. Innumerable ducks dot the swamp, coot, mallard, pochard, dabchick, brahminy, teal and spot bill. Islands and well forested hillocks break the water and jeepable embankments criss-cross the marshland making for easy viewing. The best way to see the birds however is by boats punted through the rushes. Apart from birds, other species include pythons, porcupines, nilgai, spotted deer, hyenas, sambar and wild boar. The best season for a visit is from October to February.

BHARATPUR is connected by rail and road with major cities. About 184 km. by road from Delhi and 55 km from Agra and there is direct rail links to Delhi and Bombay. To stay while in Bharatpur, one can select from Saras Tourist Bungalow, Dak Bungalow, Traveller's Lodge, Rest House, Gol Bagh Palace Hotel etc.

So, plan a visit to this nest of beautiful birds and one can have an ever remembering experience. ●

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Respected Editor,

I saw April issue of your magazine. I gone through it carefully and found it very interesting, useful friendship magazine in India.

An interview with Miss Sandhya Menon is very good. The article "Penfriendship" by Miss N. Brindha is very nice and above all "Jaihind Garden" is excellent.

One can find a lot of nice and intimate pen-personal friends from this garden. Your garden has a variety of flowers.

I wish you every success and pray to God for your good health so that you can publish this magazine regularly uninterruptedly.

—Miss Anu, Haryana, India.

Amulya Kumar Sharma.

Penaaz Masani's name comes to one's mind immediately when one hears of Ghazal World. At the very young age of 23, she has been able to gain fame throughout the world because of her performances. She is the first female singer (Non-film) to get a GOLD DISC as Solo Ghazal Singer in India. Since 5 years of age, she started appearing in the Ghazal world and she has already cut twelve discs.

In an interview with Miss Penaaz Masani at Hotel Belle Vue, Guwahati when she came to participate in a Ghazal programme at Rabindra Bhavan on 12th March 1987, she told us about herself that she is inspired in her career by none other than her father Mr. Doli Masani ; himself a disciple of Ustad Faiyaz Khan Saheb of the Agra Gharana.

Miss Masani came to Guwahati as her third visit to Assam along with her father Mr. Doli Masani. She fascinated the audience by her sweet performances. The Jaihind Penfriends' Club of Guwahati felicitated her by Assamese traditional Fulam Japi and Gamocha. A merit certificate was also given to her for her contributions to Ghazal world on 13th March 1987. Last year, she accompanied Gulam Ali, another noted Ghazal Singer of Pakistan, to Guwahati to perform a Ghazal programme. Miss Masani is a Commerce Graduate. She owns a sweet voice and she also possesses a good knowledge in Classical Music. She looks extremely beautiful and so is her behaviour that she is so friendly and courteous. She knows Hindi, Urdu, Marathi, English and French languages well.

She started her training under Ustad Amanat Houssein Khan. She is still a student of "MADHURANI"; a renowned artist. Penaaz's voice was noticed first by none other than the late JAIDEV in 1979 and with his inspiration and encouragement, she has never looked back.

Penaaz Masani's twelve discs are i) Aapki Bazm Mein, ii) A team come true (a duet record of nagma with Singer Talat Aziz ), iii) Dilruba, iv) Khazana-82,84,85, v) Saugat, vi) Mehakte Magme, vii) A Gift of Song, viii) Khakhashan, ix) Tishnagi, x) Best of Penaaz, xi) Bansi Bajaiya, xii) Nasha—Dharkan (a new double LP).

Miss Masani has performed her programmes throughout India. In November, 1985, she performed her Ghazal in America accompanied with twelve consorts. In 1986, she also performed in Dubai and Bahrain in the Arabian countries. She told us that she was all set to leave for Masqat in Oman on 23rd March 1987 for her performances.

Miss Masani has sung in several languages like Hindi, Urdu, Gujrati, Assamese, Bengali and in English too. When I asked her whether at all she has sung in films, she told that she sang in few films as follows :- Aai Teri Yaad of Jaidev, Hamari Bahu Alka of Rajesh Roshan, Anand aur Anand, Ham Naojowan and Amir Admi Garib Aadmi of R.D. Burman, Ek Aadmi of Annu Malik. Moreover, she song few films under Music Directors Bappi Lahiri, Salma, Usha Khanna, Chand Pardeshi, Raajkamal and Nadeem Sraavan.

Miss Penaaz Masani has sung also for Television programmes like Aarohi and Sham-e-ghazal and became so popular every-where. Recently, she performed a programme in Rashtrapati Bhavan, New Delhi for which she was greeted by President Giani Zail Singh.

During interview, we discussed few more points which are given below :—

Q 1 Please tell us the places where you have performed programmes ?

- ★ BOMBAY, MADRAS, MYSORE, PUNE, BHOPAL, HYDERABAD, BARODA, JAIPUR, JODHPUR, RAJKOT, DELHI, LUCKNOW, CALCUTTA, GUWAHATI, OVERSEAS COUNTRIES IN THE MIDDLE EAST AND U.S.

Q.2. With this visit, you have come to Assam, the third time and would you please tell us what you have felt of Assam ?

- ★ Assam is very beautiful state. Guwahati is as beautiful as Bombay. The air of Assam is very fragrant. People are kind hearted and simple and peace loving. I love Assam.

Q. 3. Name the singers with whom you have had an opportunity to sing together ?

- ★ KISHORE KUMAR, SHAILENDRA SINGH, BHUPENDRA SINGH AND AMIT KUMAR etc.

Q. 4. Who are your favourite singers ?

- ★ Madhurani, Begum Akhtar, Mehdi Hasan, Barkat Ali Khan, Bore Gulam Ali Khan and Amir Khan.

Q. 5. How many are you in the family ?

★ My parents and I have one elder sister, that is all.

At the end of the discussion when we requested her to stay back few days more in this part of the country and visit its beautiful and historical spots, she told that this time she wants to be back home soon as her mother, Pilu Masani is to undergo an eye operation. We wished her mother a successful operation. We also wished her grand success. ●

LIFE HELP CENTRE

Life Help Centre for the handicapped was registered in Madras in 1977.

It caters to the development of the handicapped and the mentally retarded from early childhood.

The Centre started with three children in Adyar in 1977. Within two years, it had 90 inmates. To accommodate the increasing number of applicants, the Centre was shifted to Palavakkam, on the way to Mahabalipuram from Madras.

Now there are two schools run by the Centre. One is for the handicapped and the other is for the mentally retarded. Children admitted belong to the age group 4-14.

One attractive aspect of the school for the handicapped is that able-bodied children are also admitted along with the handicapped, so that they could mix freely. This chance gives a tremendous boost to the morale of the handicapped children.

Physi-therapy, self-mobility training, surgical treatment in deserving cases etc., provided in the school serve as a tremendous boost to the handicapped children in developing self-confidence. Recreation also forms an important, integral part of the curriculam.

For youngsters above 16, vocational training is also provided. In-service training to handicapped adults who have no technical qualifications. A toy making unit, a talking section, an orthopaedic appliances unit, a power laundry are some of the vocational training units attached to the Centre.

Toys made in the Centre maintain very high international standards. They find ready markets in West Germany, Holland, Australia, England and other foreign countries

Courses in vocational training arranged here last one year. Stipends are made available to the trainees. Once the training is over, all assistance is given to them to get employed in various establishments.

The Centre extends its services to the handicapped in rural areas also. A survey has been conducted recently in 15 villages and people who deserve help have been identified. They will be rehabilitated in their own environment, for which nationalised banks provide financial assistance.

No wonder the Centre Won the National Award for Services to the Handicapped for the year 1985. ●

GITA MAY MARRY

Imagine a young woman of 18, crawling around like some huge worm, using her two hands, her legs drawn behind, just useless appendages.

Well, that is what Kum. Gita Bai Sinha of village Fingeshwar, in Raipur District, Madhya Pradesh since she was 10 months old. She has never walked. Nor will she ever.

She was paralysed from her waist down even before she left her cradle. She has never walked.

Gita Bai is the eldest of five girls, born to Manaram Sinha and his wife. Manaram was a tailor by profession. He belonged to a backward community. What he could eke out of a one acre plot and his earnings from his trade kept the family alive. But when he died in 1980, the family's cup of misery was full. The machine on which he worked had to be sold off to meet the funeral expenses. Gita Bai, being the eldest of the family felt the moral obligation to maintain her sisters and aged mother somehow.

Help comes to those who need it from most unexpected sources. She was selected under 'Training of Rural Youth for Self-Employment' Scheme to study tailoring, her father's craft, with which she was somewhat familiar. She got a stipend too, during the training period, at the rate of Rs. 50 a month.

After training, she wanted to set up shop in her own house. The local branch of the Union Bank of India, came forward to advance her the amount required to purchase a sewing machine. It cost Rs 1000. Of course, it was a loan, but it carried an interest of four per cent only. Moreover, one third of the cost was met by the Integrated Rural Development Programme (IRDP) subsidy.

Anyway that changed the destiny of Gita Bai and her family. The hapless cripple now happily sits behind her machine, finishing job works offered to her.

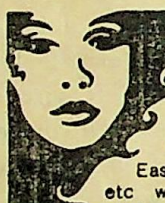

She started in April 1984. Now her daily income exceeds Rs 10 a day. She sells ready made garments also. She wants to expand it to a full-fledged tailoring unit. The Bank is willing to help with another loan.

Gita Bai is a little human being whose little pains were of no concern to the big people in this big world. Now that her troubles are fading away the world has started to notice her. The bank helped. But it was her dauntless courage she won for her, her struggle for existence. With a career open before her, she may even get married, says the little, welcome wind of change. ●
